HOOCH KICK PROVED

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas.—While defending Richard Copper-smith in court on a charge of manufacturing home brew, B. F. En-ders picked up a bottle as he questioned a witness. "Would you call this?" began the attorney. He was interrupted by a loud re-port and flying glass from the bottle cut an artery in his wrist and broke a lens of his glasses. The defense had entered the trial with the contention that the bev-erage did not contain enough "kick" to come within the state "bone dry" law.

SALVATION ARMY CHIEFS FREED

NEW YORK.—(By Associated Press.)—Commander Evangeline Booth of the Salvation Army, today announced receipt of a cable mes-sage from London headquarters an-nouncing that all Salvation Army prisoners in Russia had been re-lieved by Soviet authorities.

These prisoners, Commander Booth said, numbered about 35 of-ficers, native Russians, in charge of the organization's activities in Rus-sia, who were imprisoned last Feb-ruary. The arrests were made in retaliation, she said, for efforts of Henry Mapp, commissioner of the organization in Russia, to enlist British government aid in London with regard to growing difficulties the workers were having with the Bolshevik government.

Under the czar's regime, Com-mander Booth said, the Salvationists were prevented from holding meet-ings, their work being confined to selling a Russian "war cry" on the streets. The Kerensky government, however, established complete re-ligious liberty, which again was re-stricted by the Soviet authorities, she said.

NEW CHIEF READY TO DO MAYOR'S BIDDING

U. S. NOTE TO GERMANY STIRS ALLIED POWERS

LONDON.—(By Associated Press.)—British governmental authorities awaited with keen interest today the announcement at Berlin of Germany's policy relative to reparations. Dr. Walter Simons, German foreign min-ister was expected to voice the "last word" of his government on this subject, which is considered as the most vital question before the en-tente at the present moment, and there was evident in this city an in-clination to see what Germany would offer before reaching a decision as to what future steps the allies would take in enforcing their demands up-on the Berlin cabinet.

COMPLEXITIES ADDED

Germany's appeal to the United States to act as arbitrator of the reparations problems and the Amer-ican rejection of that role brought into the situation certain complex-ities, which seemed to place before the British and French premiers questions of considerable delicacy. The view that the answer of the Washington government had intimated a readiness to act as an in-termediary in bringing about new negotiations gained ground here and added considerably to the pre-occu-pation felt in official circles over the reparations settlement. It ap-peared certain that Mr. Lloyd-George and M. Briand would be called upon at their meeting at Lympe- either to reject the good offices of the United States, or reopen negotia-tions, but today there seemed to be a feeling that the announcement of Germany's policies might clear the way for the premiers to reach a de-cision without rejecting any offers that might come from the American capital.

NEW NOTE TO U. S.

LONDON.—(By Associated Press.)—Germany has sent to Washing-ton a reply to the American note rejecting the role of arbitrator of the reparations question between Germany and the allies, says a Cen-tral News dispatch from Berlin. The terms of the note sent to President Harding were not divulged to Party leaders up to the time it was de-patched at noon today, and its con-tents will not be made known until later in the day. Leading politicians are declared to have been angry be-cause members of the cabinet did not consult them before the original communication was sent to the American capital.

At the beginning of the exercises, the Rev. W. Hudson Shaw, rector of the church, invited any who wished to protest against Miss Royden ap-pearance to do so before leaving the building. He went on to say, how-ever, that under the Brawling Act of 1860, anybody who disturbed or interrupted a properly-appointed preacher was liable to be fined or imprisoned.

"No one," concluded the rector, "has the right to appoint the preach-er except the incumbent, and I have done it."

Miss Royden has participated in several public debates over the ques-tion whether women shall be admit-ted to the priesthood and permitted to become preachers. She has de-clared that women desire to have women act as priests and quoted from the New Testament in an at-tempt to show that the commission of priesthood was given to men and women alike at Jerusalem. In de-fense of her position she said that the head of the Church of Queen Elizabeth, Queen Anne and Queen Victoria had all been supreme heads of the church. She declared that Christ suggested nothing that divid-ed men and women in the vocation of priesthood.

STOCKHOLM.—(By Associated Press.)—Organized rebellion against Russian Soviet government is grow-ing with renewed force in Ukraine, it is declared in telegrams received here from Petrograd. Peasants en-gaged in the revolt have taken many towns between the Dnieper and Dniester rivers where the movement is most pronounced, and they are re-ported to be engaged in operations intended to force the Bolsheviks eastward to the left bank of the Dnieper.

Ukrainian peasants commanded by General Makno, operating in the Lozovo district, south of Karkhov have torn up the railway line run-ning between Moscow and the Crimea. The Bolsheviks have con-centrated troops in the district of Gomel and Rechitza, north of Kiev, where they have driven back the rebels, and in the neighborhood of Smolensk, northwest of Moscow, have begun a campaign of terrorism. It is reported they have executed 2,000 persons within the past few days. The rebellion is said to be spread-ing the regions of Karkhov and Polesia.

DRUGS CARRIED BY PIGEONS NOW

KANSAS CITY.—(Special.)—A search for the "Master mind" of a nation-wide drug smuggling ring—a criminal genius whose cunning has led to the use of carrier pigeons to transport narcotics—is in process in Kansas City.

Federal agents are convinced that this city is the "Dope" headquar-ters of the gang. Federal Narcotic Agent Joseph M. Bransky, in charge of the Northwestern Division, with headquarters in Minneapolis, is in charge of the investigation. Bransky came here recently fol-lowing a raid at a hotel in Minneap-olis in which drugs valued at $40,000 and letters and other evidence tending to show that the narcotics had been sent there from Kansas City were seized.

Six men and a woman are being held in Minneapolis as a result of the raid. Agents believe they are mere pawns in the hands of a "directing genius," whose headquarters is here. During the last six months drugs valued at more than $2,000,000 have been confiscated in raids in Midwestern cities. Federal Agents declare they have information that all of the "dope" passed through the hand of ringleaders here.

The first clue that carrier pigeons were being used to convey drugs came following the storms last week when a bird was forced to earth at Fargo, N. D. One of the pigeon's legs was broken. Two aluminum capsules containing cocaine were strapped to the pigeon's legs. Since then other pigeons, similarly "load-ed," have been found in Minnesota and Illinois.

Bransky declared to-day that the agents have discovered that drugs are being smuggled into the United States from Mexico in oil tank cars and by airplane. Sealed bottles con-taining narcotics have been found in tank cars, the agent asserts.

BATTLE FOR PULPIT WON BY WOMAN

LONDON.—(By Associated Press.)—Miss Maude Royden, leader of a movement to induce the Church of England to admit women preachers to its pulpits, has been permitted to conduct a week-day service in St. Paul's and St. Botolph's churches, despite a protest which had been made by the Rt. Rev. Arthur F. W. Ingram, Bishop of London.

The appearance of the woman in the pulpit, an innovation in the Anglican church, brought crowds to the services. Miss Royden was at-tired in a surplice and a close-fitting head dress of dark blue.

Announcement of her intention to lead the services caused considerable comment in the press, revolving about the question of women's fit-ness to assume men's positions in religious as well as political fields.

At the beginning of the exercises, the Rev. W. Hudson Shaw, rector of the church, invited any who wished to protest against Miss Royden ap-pearance to do so before leaving the building. He went on to say, how-ever, that under the Brawling Act of 1860, anybody who disturbed or interrupted a properly-appointed preacher was liable to be fined or imprisoned.

"No one," concluded the rector, "has the right to appoint the preach-er except the incumbent, and I have done it."

Miss Royden has participated in several public debates over the ques-tion whether women shall be admit-ted to the priesthood and permitted to become preachers. She has de-clared that women desire to have women act as priests and quoted from the New Testament in an at-tempt to show that the commission of priesthood was given to men and women alike at Jerusalem. In de-fense of her position she said that the head of the Church of Queen Elizabeth, Queen Anne and Queen Victoria had all been supreme heads of the church. She declared that Christ suggested nothing that divid-ed men and women in the vocation of priesthood.

DROP IN LAKE FREIGHT BUSINESS IS FORECAST

DETROIT, Mich.—The outlook for lake freight business is more discouraging this spring than in many years, according to William Livingston, president of the Lake Carriers' Association. Not more than 50 per cent of the association's tonnage would be put into operation this year unless a marked improve-ment is shown, he added. Several companies have already announced withdrawal of portions of their fleets.

DEPOSED HEAD OF DEPARTMENT READY TO FIGHT

Acting Chief of Police Jess Hargrove stepped into office Sat-urday morning and took up the reins as the head of the city's po-lice department.

"I am here to do all I can, regardless of the tangle I have stepped into," was Hargrove's first statement to a Lima News re-porter.

"Any orders the mayor has to give to me will be carried out to the letter."

"I have not yet decided on what steps I will take personally to regulate the department, but probably will have something to say the early part of next week on this subject."

"My temporary appointment was so sudden that I had no time to dope out the complex situation before I was given control of the city's police department. I am here to serve the public in general and any recommendations or criticisms will receive my consideration."

"It makes no difference how long I am here. While I am acting chief, I will do my utmost to serve the public and I solicit its support."

"As to any changes in the department, I have nothing to say at this time," he concluded.

ROUSH IS "STANDING PAT"

O. J. Roush, ousted chief of police, was standing pat Saturday morning on his assertion, following his sus-pension by Mayor Burkhardt Friday afternoon, that he will fight the case and make an effort to be reinstated.

"I have nothing further to say," Roush said. "There is nothing to say at this time, as I have told all until I appear before the civil serv-ice commission, to answer charges of Mayor Burkhardt."

Roush visited headquarters for a short time Saturday morning, and held a conference with Safety Di-rector Fred H. Fisher.

Neither would comment on the nature of their meeting. Sergeant Frank Eberle was in conference with Safer Fisher earlier.

ATTORNEYS EMPLOYED

The deposed chief of police has employed Attorneys Halthill, Quail & Kirk and Melvin C. Light to fight his case and is determined to leave nothing undone to bring about rein-statement, he said Saturday.

That Roush has the right of ap-pearal to the civil service commission on the 30-day suspension order is indicated by Section 486-19 of the General Code of Ohio, as follows: "The mayor shall have the exclu-sive right to suspend the chief of the police department or the chief of the fire department for incompet-ence, gross neglect of duty, gross immorality, habitual drunkenness, failure to obey orders given him by the proper authority or for any other reasonable and just cause. If either the chief of the police department or the chief of the fire department is so suspended the mayor forthwith shall certify such facts, together with the cause of such suspension, to the municipal civil service commission, who within five days from the date of receipt of such notice shall pro-ceed to hear such charges and ren-der judgment thereon, which judg-ment may affirm, disaffirm or mod-ify the judgment of the appointing officer, and an appeal may be had from the decision of the commission to the court of common pleas as is provided for in section 486-17a of the General Code to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal."

OTHER CHANGES HINTED

"I do not want to talk," said Mayor F. A. Burkhardt Saturday morning in discussing the upheaval in the police department. "I do not want to prejudice myself before any court for I understand that there is a possibility of this matter getting into court."

"Complaints keep pouring into my office," he said. When asked if he was going to push his fight against Roush further than the 30 days' suspension, he said:

"Indications are that there will be matters brought to my attention that will cause me to conclude to file charges against him for his per-manent removal. However, this is not certain; future developments will guide me."

"Indications are that there will be other changes in the department," said the mayor, when asked if he was contemplating the suspension of any other members of the police department. He mentioned no names.

MYSTERY VEILS DEATH IN HOTEL

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(By Associated Press.)—Charles Leathers, vice-president of the Louisville National Bank, today awaits the arrival of the body of his son, Richard A. Leathers, aged 24, who was found dead in a hotel in Clarksville, Tenn. last night. A bullet hole thru the mouth indicates suicide. He had been dead since Wednesday night when he registered at the hotel. There was nothing to indicate the motive.

A telegram from the hotel man-agement was the only news the family received last night. Apparently the young man was in good health and free from worry on his last visit home about two months ago.

Young Mr. Leathers was graduat-ed from Rose Polytechnic in 1913 and since that time has been travel-ing salesman for an Indianapolis com-pany.

Besides his parents he is survived by a sister, Mrs. George Thomas of New York and a grand-father, John H. Leathers, president of the Louis-ville National Bank. His mother is in New York visiting her daughter.

PEEP SCENE DENIED BY MRS. STOKES

NEW YORK.—(Special.)—Life with an aged, wealthy husband was described in detail by Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, pretty and young, in defense of the W. T. D. Stokes di-vores suit.

Mrs. Stokes told of the romance and marriage, and then the troubles in her life with the elderly millionaire. At the same time she denied every one of those stories of many co-re-spondents. Those "peeping scenes," affectionate greetings for male call-ers at the Stokes home, those bath-ing beach events and auto rides—all related by witnesses for Stokes—were one and all denied as fabrica-tions and part of a "framed up" case.

HOW THEY FIRST MET

How Mrs. Stokes, then Helen El-wood, known to friends as "Carrots," became of her luxurious red hair, met the elderly rich hotel owner was first told in her testimony.

"He followed me up the elevator in the Ansonia hotel (owned by Stokes), in September, 1910, a few days after I reached the hotel," Mrs. Stokes said.

She explained that she was at the hotel with a Dr. and Mrs. Hendricks following a trip to Cuba.

"After that day he called on the Hendricks and thus I met him," she continued.

"I wouldn't return because of the chickens that were kept there."

Practically all her other testimony was in contradiction of testimony by Stokes' witnesses. She characterized as unqualifiedly false that she had been unduly intimate with Edgar T. Wallace or George Schroter.

THUG SLAIN IN GUN FIGHT WITH POLICE

SANDUSKY, O.—(By Associated Press.)—Railroad detective shot and killed an unknown pun in the New York Central yards here early to-day, when they found the man and two companions robbing a car. The man killed had engaged in a gun battle with the detectives.

Another man, a foreigner, was found in a box car with a bullet in his neck some time later at Bay-bridge, seven miles west of here. The slain robber sent a bullet thru the skirt of the overcoat of Detective Sergeant G. A. Rice, of Toledo, who led the raid, before he was brought down.

LAWMAKER'S SON ARRESTED

YOUNGSTOWN.—(By Associated Press.)—With two carnival men under arrest here, John L. Cooper, son of Congressman John G. Cooper, and H. T. Smith of Trenton, N. J., argu-ments will be heard today in com-mon pleas court on a temporary in-junction secured by the Cooper Car-nival against the city administra-tion's policy of issuing no permit to carnivals this year, on account of trouble with shows last year.

Cooper is at liberty under bond, but Smith refused bond, and is in jail. They attempted to run the carnival without a permit, relying on the temporary injunction granted them earlier in the week.

MURDER CASE ASSIGNED

CELINA.—The case of Marle Grim, indicted for first degree murder of her new born babe, has been assigned for Tuesday, May 31, to Judge H. A. Miller. Other assign-ments are: Floyd Humrickhouse rape with consent, May 24; James Swathwood, rape, May 27; Alex New-ris, burglary, May 23.

CHI COLLEGE WOUNDED WAR VETS TO BE RETURNS TO BIG TEN HONORED

CHICAGO.—The University of Chicago returns to the big ten baseball race today after a year's absence caused by a trip to Japan for the nine.

They will meet the University of Illinois on the diamond of the latter, with only two veterans in the lineup. Barnes, who pitched a no-hit, no-run game against Northwestern last week, is expected to be on the mound for Illinois.

Three other ten games are scheduled for today. Northwestern vs. Ohio State at Columbus; Michigan, 1920 champions, vs. Purdue at Ann Arbor and Wisconsin vs. Indiana at Bloomington.

CHICAGO.—Letters have been received from heads of three other leagues endorsing the proposal of President Ban Johnson of the American League to hold a "party" through the United States and Canada for disabled veterans, from neighboring hospitals, on May 12, selected as Hospital Day.

President Hickey of the American Association and President Tanager of the Western and Three-I leagues wrote that they would put the suggestion into effect. The Chicago White Sox who will be playing the Boston Red Sox here on that day, have invited wounded soldiers from hospitals around Chicago to be their guests, May 12.

PAL MOORE IS AFTER SCALP OF LYNCH

CHICAGO—Pal Moore, the Memphis, Tenn., bantamweight, is in the midst of an extensive training siege here in preparation for his twelve round contest with Joe Lynch, the bantamweight champion, in Louisville May 6, the night before the running of the Kentucky Derby.

Altho Moore hails from Memphis, he has made Chicago his home for the last five years, and does all of his training in gymnasiums in this city. Since Lynch became bantamweight title holder, Moore has been clamoring for a match, as he is confident he can beat him.

Critics agree that Moore always has given Lynch the best contests that the title holder ever received during his brilliant career in the ring.

They have met in five contests—54 rounds in all—and only Lynch's superior strength and staying power have been able to overcome Moore's tremendous speed.

The coming contest will be decided in the huge Jefferson County Armory and indications are that the gate receipts may reach $30,000.

SOME HI SPOTS IN SPORT

Bantam Champion Joe Lynch says that his easiest fights during his entire career were the four he had with the boy he took into camp in annexing the title, namely, Pete Herman. Lynch believes that he could whip Pete every night in the week, as he knows his style and says that he has his number.

As for his toughest fight, well, Lynch tells us that Bobby Ford gave him his hardest mill and that was in his preliminary days. Ford clouted Joe good and plenty and for the first and only time in his career Joey had both eyes cut open. However, there was balm for his hurts when he knocked Ford out in the eighth stanza with a right cross.

Joey proves that wallow above all others, for he says if it hadn't been for his right he wouldn't have been able to present his good, old dad with a half-ton and a 2 1/2-ton truck. Old Man Lynch was in the trucking business with horses for years and years and he's still in the game, but he doesn't know which he is prouder of "My Boy Joey" or his new trucks.

The following is a true copy of a letter, which has its splendid side, even if the English is a little mixed. The gospel of athletics is spreading, and this boy of the far east is fired with it. The letter sent to a sporting goods store, reads:

"Belrut 24 March, 1921.
"I, the under mentioned, is an inhabitant of Belrut in the American University come to write you this few lines asking from your kindness to send me your honorable catalogue containing the full athletic stuff in order to pick up the articles needed."

If that boy doesn't become an athlete sooner than after the American plan it will not be for the reason that he hasn't tried. His name is Abdel Rahman Ousta.

Dan Meoller, veteran big league outfielder, has decided he can't make it this year and has quit the Des Moines team. He came back in pretty fair shape last summer, but the spring time is no time for an old-timer. He may return to the game when the sun is hotter.

Georges Carpentier will leave France May 7 for the United States, according to a cablegram received.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION
Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

BLIND YOUTH TRAINS FOR RUNNING

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.—Blindness is not proving a great handicap to Arch R. Addington's ambition to be a distance runner on the Indiana University track team. Addington, altho almost totally blind, has paid his expenses thru two years of his college course by tuning pianos.

He recently appeared at the athletic field in a track suit and took several practice turns around the cinder track. Coach Millen believes that with training he may work into a regular place on the team. His home is in Bloomington.

Valley Golf Meet opens May 20th

LINCOLN, Neb.—The first annual Missouri Valley intercollegiate golf tournament will be held here May 20 and 21. The meet will be under the auspices of the University of Nebraska and a majority of the Missouri Valley members are expected to enter teams.

PARIS RACING YEAR OPENS WITH YANKS ON BIG TURFS

(By WILL COOK)

PARIS—April each year sees the beginning of what is now commonly known as the "Paris season." Receptions, fashion begin in April and continue till June, when everyone leaves for seaside watering places. Among the many distributions which mark the Paris season none is so popular both with the French and visitors to the country as horse racing. And Americans for a large part contribute to make this sport the success it is in France.

Tho but few American-bred horses are seen on French tracks, there are several American owners, trainers and jockeys. Years ago horse racing in France was practically the sport of Britishers. They introduced it. Britishers owned most of the horses. Britishers trained them and Britishers rode them both in flat races and over "sticks." Then came French sportsmen, firstly as owners who gave their horses to Britishers to train and British jockeys rode them. Later came American owners and with them American trainers and jockeys. To-day there are Russians, Greeks, Italians, Belgians both owning and training horses.

Foremost among American owners is Mr. A. K. Macomber, who is the owner of the largest number of horses in training in France. Many of his good horses he brought from America with him, such as Hollister, who last year was considered the fastest horse on French tracks. Mr. Macomber enjoys a wide popularity on the French "turf." Before him America was ably represented in the person of the late William K. Vanderbilt, whose horses, today the property of Mr. Macomber, won all the big events in France.

His stallions were much sought after for breeding purposes. Mr. Vanderbilt brought with him as trainer William Duke and Joe Ransch as jockey. Duke, on the death of Mr. Vanderbilt, signed up with Mr. Ambatiello, a Greek owner, while Ransch gave up racing several years before the war broke out. Then Johnny Riff came over for Mr. Vanderbilt and proved to be one of the most successful jockeys seen on French tracks. Altho Riff said he was retiring in 1914 he is coming back this year and will undoubtedly sign up with Mr. Macomber and ride this owner's horses with Frank O'Neill, of St. Louis, Mr. Vanderbilt's jockey, who Mr. Macomber secured for the highest fee ever paid a jockey. Riff's brother, Dalbert, has been training horses for French owners for some years in France and just recently took charge of animals belonging to W. T. Wilkinson, another popular American.

AMERICAN JOCKEYS FAVORITES
All American jockeys are favorites with French and British racing crowds in France. Their cleverness and honesty have made them very popular. O'Neill's rides always come in for a lot of betting and his followers are well inspired, for Frankie has headed the list of winning jockeys for five consecutive years. "Matt" MacGee is another American favorite. He hails from Cincinnati and rides for the biggest French stable, that of Baron Edmond de Rothschild. His manner of handling horses is much admired and his gentleness makes him a friend of all. For two years in succession Matt ran O'Neill a close race for winning honors in the list. Guy Gardner, another American who last year rode for Mr. Macomber, today has a big contract with Mr. Ambatiello, while when free he receives numerous offers from French and British owners to ride their horses. He is considered a "crack" on short distances. His second rides usually go to Eugene Leigh, said to be the cleverest of American trainers. The French tracks have ever known. Before the war Leigh had as many as 120 horses in his care divided up at exercise.

There is only one American riding over hurdles in France, and he does so with much success. He is Fred Williams, whom Leigh brought back with him after a recent trip to the States.

THE HOLE IN THE ROAD

THE highway past a person's home or place of business constitutes his connection with the world, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Without it the individual would revert to primitive isolation. Moreover, that highway belongs in part to the individual, for it is built with his money. Whether the road be good or bad, the individual is a partner in the enterprise.

A hole in the road near one's home concerns one personally and directly. If one happens to drive frequently the hole assumes the proportions of a major public issue. It may appeal to the individual as of more importance to him than the tariff, the currency, or the foreign policy of the nation.

Millions are spent annually on American highways. Many thousands are wasted, and one of the chief sources of waste lies in neglecting pavements after they are laid. As soon as that hole in the pavement in front of your property appeared it should have been somebody's particular business to repair it. Such a hole is much like a cancer—readily cured for at the start, but rapidly spreading and becoming more malignant if neglected.

President Harding doubtless had in mind this hole in the pavement—this hole you are especially interested in when he told congress on Tuesday that it should be the policy of the federal government when it cooperates with local authorities in road building to insist that pavements so laid shall be afterward maintained properly to avoid waste. "Patrol and constant repair" was the phrase he used.

They do this better abroad than here, for in some states in America the importance of "patrol and constant repair" is recognized. If it is worth while to spend millions in good roads every year it is obviously worth while to maintain them in their improved condition afterward. Patrol crews equipped with materials for quick repairs should be constantly on the alert for signs of trouble. In other countries a hole in the road is not allowed to become a cancer beyond control. It is fixed forthwith. It should be so here.

If American highway authorities want to make themselves solid with those who own the roads—that is, with Mr. Average Citizen and all his kin—they should take a hint from President Harding's message to congress. "Patrol and constant repair." That's a slogan that sounds good to us.

A NEW PROPOSAL

CABLE despatches indicate that the German government, hard put by the demands of the allied associated powers, has proposed as a means of threading its way out of the maze of financial difficulties, that it assume the debt of the allied nations to the United States, comments the Dayton News. In this procedure, naturally, there would have to be some assurance from the American government that such a course would be satisfactory. Also it would be necessary for the European nations which are indebted to us to agree to such a procedure.

In analyzing this impending proposal there are certain unfavorable aspects to be considered. To begin with Germany in making such a proposition assumes, of course, that some sort of a peace understanding is to be developed between that nation and this. The German government hardly could expect to do business with us so long as the two nations remain in a technical state of war. This on its face is unwise and impractical. The American government would not consent for a minute to such negotiations. But assuming, for the moment, that a separate peace has been made and we enter into some manner of understanding with Germany, it becomes instantly a moot question whether the United States government would be willing to find itself suddenly interested in the German government to the extent of probably ten billions of dollars, with accrued interest from the allies debt. Germany is expected to survive its present ills. It is hoped for the sake of civilization that there will be no demoralization of that government. But if there should transpire some unhappy condition which caused Germany and the German government to collapse, America would be caught holding the bag to the extent of about $10,000,000,000. We do not want to get ourselves into such a position. Economically it would be an unsound policy. We have a fair degree of assurance that European nations now indebted to us will meet their indebtedness sooner or later. Germany may never be able to meet all the financial demands made upon her. And, too, there is that of entangling alliances with Germany which at present do not make the proposal appealing.

FOREST PROTECTION

IN setting aside the week of May 22 by formal proclamation as "Forest Protection Week" President Harding calls attention to a very important feature of national conservation needs, the Enquirer says.

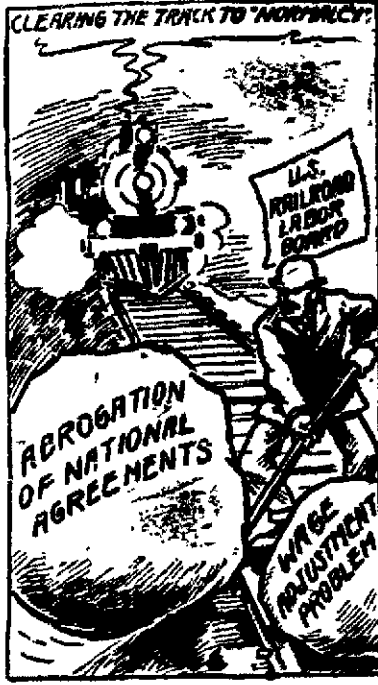

Few people realize the extent of the damage done by forest fires, and but few people, perhaps, are aware that reforestation is not practiced in this country as it is in Europe and that wood is becoming scarce even in this mighty land of sylvan treasures.

By proclamation the President asks the governors of the various states to arrange educational and instructive exercises to place before the people the need for prevention of unnecessary waste by forest fires. This may not seem so profound an interest as that which induces to laboring with international and domestic problems, economics and relationships, but in the last analysis it is of higher importance than many of these imminent discussions.

The destruction by fires in the United States involves an annual forest loss of approximately 12,500,000 acres of timber land and other natural resources. This is a menace to the future timber supply, and, in the President's language, "threatens to become a present economic fact seriously affecting our social and industrial welfare."

Perhaps the greater percentage of these fires could be prevented by care and vigilance. The people are exhorted to the practice of these means, and during the week of May 22 they are requested to participate in all functions calculated to give publicity to these facts and to extend the education of prevention to the greatest possible degree.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is a lucky day. There is an indication that some of the most radical thinkers will incline more toward conservatism during the coming months and that in this way they will develop real power in helping to solve the nation's difficulties. Those dealing in real estate or agriculture will prosper under this rule of the stars. There is a warning of international difficulties which may force the United States to call out either the fleet or the army. Those engaged in the shipping industry will profit greatly during the coming months. Persons whose birthday this is, should be unusually successful during the coming year if they avoid change. Children born today will probably have uneventful, but very happy careers. (Copyright, 1921)

DECLINED.

Hon. Warren G. Harding, Washington, D. C.:

Dear Pres.—We are very sorry that it will be impossible at this time for us to accept the ambassadorship to Yap. In the first place we do not like the climate and then we cannot subsist on a diet of coconuts and bananas. Then, again, we understand that Yap is about to be the hotbed of a war with Japan, and we have had enough war to last us for several centuries.

We know you have appointed one great journalist to London and would like to have another in Yap, and we would overlook all the aforementioned objections were it not that we would have to give up column writing, which brings us in somewhat in the way of remuneration—almost enough in fact to keep us out of debt, and one can't do this with an ambassadorship.

We do not like the way the ladies dress in Yap. They wear hay skirts and necklaces, we understand, and are beginning to dress more and more like Fifth-ave every day. This is unfortunate and we do not wish to witness the humiliation of a great race such as the Yappers are.

We hope you will not take this declination too much to heart and that you will be able to find some great writer to take the place. As for us, we can do enough yapper right around here every day. We cannot accept and could not accept the place, even if you offered it to us. Sincerely, Old Gals.

"THE PASSING SHOW" AT THE FAUROT TODAY

New York Winter Garden Production Brought to Lima for Two Performances

Theatre Directory for Saturday Afternoon and Night—Cosip of the Film

To say that "The Passing Show," the big New York Winter Garden production, which opened at the Faurot this afternoon for an engagement of matinee and night, is the most gorgeous, gigantic and superb spectacle ever presented in this city, would be putting it mildly. For the show, judged from every angle, is positively the greatest and most worth-while one of its kind this country has ever seen. In pretentiousness, it has no equal. Its two acts and fifteen scenes are punched with glorious colors, scenic effects, some of which positively awe the beholder, and rollicking entertainment which has for its motif a horde of capable and versatile entertainers.

To J. J. Shubert goes the credit for developing this human and decorative mass into something definite, substantial and essentially entertaining. He produced the show and his capable functioning is apparent throughout. There are twenty-two singing, dashing musical numbers rendered by excellent singing artists. The same company which was at the New York Winter Garden will be seen here, while prominent in the cast are such headliners as: Roy Cummings, Will Philbrick, Klein Brothers, Edward Basse, Edward Culler, Helen Carrington, Alexandra Dagnar, Dolores Suarez, Florence Cummings, Peggy Brown, Billie Shaw, Clara Lind, Bobbie Boles and Thelma Seymour, not forgetting 75 fascinating beauties presented in a manner unequalled in the history of the American stage. Last time tonight, the curtain rising at eight o'clock sharp.

"A JEWEL OF CHICAGO" Is Title Applied to Wrigley Building

Wrigley's new office building in Chicago is at the new Boulevard Link Bridge, Michigan avenue and the river and stands the vista looking north on Michigan avenue, as Mr. Wrigley chose a beautiful design which makes the building a decorative feature of the Chicago lake front and harmonizes with the Chicago Beautiful plan.

Wrigley Building

The main building is 16 stories high, surmounted by a tower 42 feet square and rising 398 feet from the street level. This tower will contain a clock with dials on four sides, each 20 feet in diameter and will be surrounded by a searchlight lantern 5 feet in diameter. The building is covered with enamel finish terra cotta on all four sides. It is regarded as one of the most beautiful buildings in Chicago and people and press are enthusiastic about it. The Chicago Tribune published a picture labeling it a "Jewel of the Link." Wrigley also recently completed new factories at Chicago and New York.

All this new construction work in the space of a few years is certainly a tribute to the power of advertising and the accumulative effect of a multitude of 5-cent sales.

are required for an animated cartoon. That is why few of them are more than 250 feet.

HELPED HER LITTLE GIRL—Children need all their strength for growing. A lingering cold weakens them so that the system is open to attack by more serious sickness. Mrs. Amanda Mint, Route 4, New Philadelphia, O., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my little girl of the worst tickling cough. I had tried many things and found nothing to help until I got Foley's Honey and Tar. Gives immediate relief from distressing, racking, tearing coughs. Chas. J. Vorkamp, Main and McKibben Sts.—Adv."

STATE RESTS IN LAMPY CASE

Near Hundred Witnesses Called for the Defense

VAN WERT—(Special)—Whether statements alleged to have been made by John Lampy, Mercer-co farmer, accused of the murder of George DeCamp, purported to have been made the afternoon of the day DeCamp was killed, would be admitted as evidence, occupied the attention of the court here the greater part of the day Friday, while the jury was dismissed.

Summer Walters, assistant prosecuting attorney and John Trippy, a stenographer, were unable to remember the details of a statement alleged to have been made before them and Prosecuting Attorney Carl E. Dunifon, by Lampy the afternoon of the day on which DeCamp was killed. Dunifon had not then taken office. Whether the court would admit his testimony and that of Walter and Trippy was for the court to decide Friday.

In effect, the statements alleged to have been made by Lampy at that time was that he had a gun with him when he and his sister-in-law Ida Sprain called at the farm where DeCamp was killed. Sheriff Sells testified that Ida Sprain had admitted that Lampy killed DeCamp; that Lampy had also admitted the killing, saying that he had shot DeCamp three times.

The court ruled that an unsigned statement, claimed to have been made by Lampy on the day of the shooting, could not be admitted in evidence. Lee N. Murkin said that Lampy was flushed and excited the afternoon of the killing when he called at the Lampy farm. County Commissioner Albert Barages said that Lampy had told him he carried a gun because he was afraid DeCamp would "get him into a corner or get him in the barn."

Trial of the case was speeded up Friday and the state rested its case at 11 a. m. A total of 87 witnesses has been called by the defense. It is understood that defense turn its batteries on DeCamp's character prior to the killing.

RECOVER FROM INJURY—David Spittler, 112 1-2 E. Market-st, who suffered fracture of the abdomen when he was struck by a truck at Main and Elm-sts some weeks ago, while trying to dodge a street car, and who has been a patient at the City hospital since, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrup and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
